iv)	Date of Election and the hour of voting by personal ballot	Thursday 21/01/2016	10.30 A.M. to 12.30 P.M.

All the members of the Senate are eligible to participate in the Election. Under Statutes 9.5 elections to the authorities of the University, voting shall be by personal ballot in accordance with the system of single proportional representation by means of single transferable vote.

Nomination papers shall be in the prescribed form. The copies may be obtained from the Office of the Returning Officer, The Registrar, Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka, 4th 'T' Block, Jayanagar, Bangalore – 560 041. The nomination paper should reach the Returning Officer before the date and time fixed for the purpose. Any nomination paper which is received after the date and time fixed or which is not accompanied by the deposit receipt referred to in St. 5.11 or which does not comply with any of the formalities required by the Statutes shall be rejected.

Every candidate shall deposit with the University a Sum of Rs. 100/- and the receipt for payment of the amount of the deposit shall accompany his nomination paper. The candidate shall not be deemed to be duly nominated unless the said deposit has been made.

The deposit referred to in clause (1) shall be forfeited to the university if the candidate is not elected and number of votes credited to him at the last count before he is excluded or before the last of the successful candidate is elected less than one eighth of the quota.

As soon as possible after the last day fixed for receipt of nominations, at the time and place fixed and notified in the notice of elections, the Registrar or any person nominated by him shall scrutinize the nominations and decide their validity. The candidate or his agent duly authorized in writing shall be entitled to be present at such scrutiny.

A list of candidates whose nomination papers have been declared valid will be published on the notice Board in the office of the University on the same day and copy of the same forwarded to each of the candidates nominated for election.

In case of dispute about the decision as to the validity or otherwise of any nomination, the matter may be referred to the Vice-Chancellor or in his absence a Dean of the faculty as designated by Vice-Chancellor whose decision shall be final.

Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing and attested to by two voters in the form prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor and all such applications should reach the office of the Registrar before the time fixed on the date notified for the purpose.

The Returning Officer will publish as soon as practicable on the Notice Board a final list of candidates validly nominated.

By Order,
