NOTIFICATION.

It has come to the notice of this University that some unscrupulous elements claiming to represent this University are misleading and cheating gullible parents and students who are aspiring to get admitted, especially, in the medical colleges affiliated to this University.

It is herewith clarified that the University has not authorized anybody to represent it for any purpose. This University also, as a principle, does not entertain any unrelated person to transact with it. It is therefore desired that the concerned parent/student should personally verify all aspects directly with university / college authorities while seeking admission to any of the colleges affiliated.

It is requested that they contact the University/college authorities directly for any information and clarification regarding his/her admission. It is requested that they do not entertain anybody claiming to represent this University and they may immediately bring such elements to the notice of the local police under intimation to Registrar of the University through e-mail at rguhsregistrar@gmail.com.

The University does not take responsibility for any acts of commission and omission of parents and students in this regard due to their negligence, ignorance or otherwise.
