ACADEMIC ASSURANCE SCHEME-RGUHS

Version 1.2

Preamble:

Extending Academic insurance to its students is a ambitious program for the silver jubilee year, as students are not only the asset of RGUHS but are also the asset of the nation and it is also believed that this quality asset will make a difference in building the nation. Under no circumstances any student should leave the course because of death of the bread winner of the family and ensuring financial difficulties. To address this problems, Rajiv Gandhi University of health sciences has come out with a novel scheme called “Academic Assurance Scheme” where in students will be given financial assistance for completing their course.

The Details of the scheme are as follows

- This scheme is available to such students whose parent/guardian dies while the student is pursuing their studies in any of the affiliated institutions of RGUHS.
- This scheme is applicable only in such cases where parent/guardian is the sole bread winner of the family and because of his/her untimely death; student is put into financial difficulties which will come in the way of the student completing his/her academic carrier.
- The notified fees by the Government shall be paid by RGUHS to Government quota in Government College only the tuition fee prescribed by the Government for that seat during the current year of study and for rest of the completion of that particular academic year in their course.
- In case of students studying in the private colleges under Government seat, RGUHS shall pay only the tuition fee prescribed by the government for that seat (i.e Govt seat quota in a private college) during the current year of study and for rest of the completion of that academic year in their course.

- The notified fee will be sanctioned only on submission of fee receipt to the university issued by the competent authority.
- If student receives scholarship less than tuition fee the difference amount will be paid from the University
- Student shall produce the death certificate of their parents/guardians, Bonafied study certificate, Affidavit, KEA allotment order, fee receipt and domicile Certificate (Karnataka) issued by the concerned competent authority for availing the Academic Assurance.
- The student shall apply after Principal signature for availing the benefit of this scheme in the prescribed format as given in Annexure-1 through an online portal established by the university for this purpose. The hard copy of the application shall be sent to the university with all relevant enclosures by registers post with acknowledgement due.
- The applications shall be duly scrutinized and forwarded by the head of the institution where the student is studying.
- Upon receipt of application, Student welfare section of RGUHS shall place the application before the “Academic Assurance Scheme Settlement Committee” constituted for this purpose.
- The committee after ascertaining the credentials of the application shall make recommendation for the financial aid to be given to the student.
- The university after getting recommendations from the committee shall give financial aid and the amount shall be transferred to the account of the student by RTGS.
- The details of the financial aid given shall be placed before the syndicate for ratification.
