DENTAL COUNCIL OF INDIA

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, dated 12th January, 2006.

No.DE-22-2005 - In exercise of the powers conferred by section 10A read with section 20 of the Dentists Act, 1948 (16 of 1948), the Dental Council of India with the previous approval of the Central Government, in supersession of the Establishment of new Dental Colleges, opening of higher courses of study and increase of admission capacity in dental colleges Regulations 1993, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before such supersession, hereby makes the following regulations relating to establishment of new dental colleges, opening of new or higher course of study or training and increase of admission capacity in dental colleges, namely:-

1. Short title and commencement:-

- (1) These regulations may be called the Dental Council of India (Establishment of New Dental Colleges. Opening of New or Higher Course of Study or Training and Increase of Admission Capacity in Dental Colleges) Regulations, 2006.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Applicability.-

These regulations shall be applicable to the proposals relating to the following from the academic year 2006-07:

- (a) establishment of a new dental college at the under-graduate level;
- (b) introduction of a new or higher course of study or training at the post-graduate level (diploma and degree both);and
- (c) increase of admission capacity in a dental college at the under-graduate or post-graduate level:

Provided that the dental colleges established or permitted to increase the admission capacity at the under-graduate level before the commencement of these regulations will continue to be governed by the Establishment of new Dental Colleges, opening of higher courses of study and increase of admission capacity in dental colleges Regulations, 1993.

The following have been added in terms of (2nd Amendment) notification published on 21.02.2006 in the Gazette of India.

In partial modification of the applicability of the principal Regulations, regarding the applications pending with the Dental Council of India (including those received for the academic session 2006-2007) for permission under section 10A of the Dentists Act, the Central Government vide in letter No. Y12012/4/2003-PMS (DE) dated 3rd/6th February,2006 has decided as under:-

“It has been decided that certain exemptions/relaxation may be given to the pending application in regard to the applicability of the revised regulations to them. Considering the fact that it may not be feasible for the application to readily conform to the regulations relating to constructed area on the land earmarked for the proposed dental college as per the revised regulations, it has been decided to grant a grace period of one year i.e. till the inspection for the next renewal of permission is due for the purpose of fulfilling the requirements of constructed area. Similarly the provisions relating to hospital attachment in cases where the dental college has a tie-up with a private hospital will not apply to the pending applications for a period of one year provided the dental college is in a position to set up its own 100 bed hospital in accordance with the norms prescribed in the revised regulations during the period.

In order to ensure that the interests of the students admitted after due permission, to such dental college are protected, it has also been decided that these relations wherever sought will be provided to the applicants subject to their furnishing an undertaking to the Dental Council of India to the effect that they would comply with the requirement of the revised regulations before the next renewal is due failing which they would not be entitled to seek renewed of permission. This would also be subject to their furnishing on additional bank guarantee of Rs. 1.00 crores valid for one year in favour of the Dental Council of India in case relaxation in respect of the provision relating to constructed area is sought and a similar bank guarantee for Rs. 1.00 crore in case relaxation relating to hospital attachment is sought.
