Guidelines for Conducting Physiotherapy (UG) and Allied Health Sciences (UG & PG) Examinations During August-2020 in view of COVID-19

- RGUHS has communicated in its earlier mails to affiliated institutes to ensure the presence of all examination appearing candidates either in the Institute campus or in same city.
- Institutes to ensure students return if any, by following quarantine guidelines of Government of Karnataka / Local Administration.
- A nodal officer should be allocated to monitor them and to ensure all guidelines of travel and quarantine issued by Government of Karnataka / Local Administration.
- Arrangements for Sanitization of inmate's vicinity, provision of elbow/foot operated sanitizer dispenser at required places and to ensure Mask wearing practices with social distancing in hostel to be monitored by concerned authorities/nodal officer.
- Staff's (Cooking & supplying staff, cleaning, clerks etc.) in working hostels should be screening for Influenza like Illness (ILI).
- Students residing in hostels should be allowed in batches for having food in hostel mess and instruct to avoid mass gathering.

Theory Exam hall etiquette during COVID-19 pandemic:

Exam Hall arrangements:

1. Exams hall should have good natural ventilation; no air condition hall should be used and should have separate entry and exit. Exam hall to be sanitized as per Government of Karnataka guidelines.
2. Students should be instructed to report at least one hour prior to scheduled time.
3. At the entry, crowding of students to be avoided and Social distancing of one meter between students to be maintained.
4. Arrange for Elbow/foot operated Hand sanitizer dispenser, Thermal screening and for ILI/COVID-19 symptoms screening at the entry of examination hall.
5. For candidates reporting of ILS'S or candidates coming from containment area's separate hall with web streaming facilities to be earmarked and ensuring at least 2 meters distance between two candidates.
