RGUHS/ACA/DCD/Rescheduling of exams/AHS/392/2020-21

Date: 12-05-2020

NOTIFICATION

Sub: Rescheduling the conduct of RGUHS AHS BSc Examinations of April 2020 and onwards.

Ref: Minutes of 148th Syndicate meeting held on 18/04/2020.

In Pursuance of the decision of the Syndicate, approval is accorded for rescheduling the conduct of RGUHS AHS BSc Examinations of April 2020 and onwards as follows:

Conduct of AHS BSc (I, II and III year) Examination of April 2020 and Onwards

There are TWO CATEGORIES of students taking RGUHS Examination in April 2020

CATEGORY – I: Students eligible for carry over.

- A candidate who has failed in Ist-year is permitted to carry any two of the five main subjects and can appear for these papers along with papers of the IInd-year examination.
- A candidate who has failed in IInd-year is permitted to carry any one of the three/ four main subjects and shall have to pass these subjects before appearing for the IIIrd-year examination.

CATEGORY-II: Students who are not eligible for carryover i.e. those who have failed in more subjects than stipulated.

Considering, the uncertainty prevailing from COVID-19 pandemic and concerns involved in the return of students from different parts of the country and return of students who are evacuated and taken to their native countries, the following may be considered:

- The CATEGORY – 1 students may take the examination for their carry over subjects in September – October 2020 (or during the time, the September – October is scheduled considering the events following the pandemic)
- These students may also be permitted to take their regular papers of their following year scheduled during September – October 2020 (ONE TIME MEASURE)
- In total, CATEGORY – 1 students will not take more than 7 papers during this examination.
- The students will have to pass ALL the papers during the September – October Examination of 2020 or by April – May 2021 before appearing for the regular Examination of the next academic year to be conducted in September – October 2021. The description to this given below
